

These plans are conceptual only and are regarded as non-site specific. They are intended for the sole purpose of generating ideas and not for construction. All measurements must be verified on site. All construction must be engineered to council specifications and standard placing sole responsibility on those person performing said construction.