The vendor and its agents do not guarantee, warrant or represent any information contained in the marketing material. Any information about, the project, proposed plan of division and essential services, the land, timing schedules and the house (Development) (including computer generated images) are an indicative guide only and are not an exact replication of the proposed Development. Depictions and illustrations of houses, setbacks, streetscapes and landscapes are non-exact indicative guides provided by third parties that may contract with the Purchaser separately. Any prices are indicative only and may change based on factors including but not limited to availability and deliverability of land and essential services by specific timeframes and the performance of the Purchaser of any necessary obligations with a contracted Builder. Any intending purchaser should not rely on this marketing material or verbal statements and where necessary seek appropriate professional and legal advice independently. Final designs and specifications are subject to the approval of the Council and the vendor (in its absolute discretion) and any requirements of any authority. To the extent that the purchaser wishes to rely on a representation made by the vendor this must be agreed in writing in the contract. To the extent permitted by the law, the vendor will not be liable for any damage, loss or inconvenience caused in relation to any reliance by the purchaser on the marketing materials or other information represented in this document.
